Charities@Work Summit Awards

Each year, Charities@Work seeks to recognize outstanding work in the field of employee engagement, CSR and campaign management. We recognize companies, teams and individuals for their best in class and innovative practices. Self-nominations are encouraged along with nominations from team members on behalf of other individuals or from Charities@Work partners on behalf of corporate partners.

Corporate Excellence Award

Large Company – Sprint

Small to Medium Company – Mountain Rose Herbs

The Corporate Excellence Award is Charities@Work's top award and is given annually to one corporation for overall excellence in employee engagement throughout the year.

Innovation of the Year Award

Carlson

The Charities@Work Innovation of the Year Award is presented annually to an individual, team, or company that has shown exceptional innovation in their work with Corporate Social Responsibility, and Employee and Philanthropic Engagement. The award recognizes creative thought and engagement in innovative programming and partnerships in the field of CSR and employee engagement.

Rising Star Award

Gina Rude, Accenture

The Charities@Work Rising Star Award is awarded annually to an individual who has worked in employee engagement for one to seven years and through his or her work has shown exceptional leadership and has exemplified professionalism and creativity in the areas of corporate social responsibility and employee engagement.

Partner of the Year Award

Caron Kushner, HP

The Charities@Work Partner of the Year Award is presented annually to an individual who has served as an exceptional partner to giving partners and nonprofits in his or her work with employee engagement. The individual has worked to advance programs within their organization that have made lasting and deep impacts on a local, national and/or international level.
